

My Pride and Joy

My Pride and Joy by Charles Hanson

Many of us selected a favorite car during our high school years. I must include myself in that category and my years 1950 to 1954 saw many very interesting vehicles built.

Charles Hansen's 1952 Lincoln Capri at the Mid-America this past June.

Welcome to the Northstar News, the monthly publication of the Northstar Region of the Lincoln and Continental Owners Club. We value your opinions and appreciate your input concerning this newsletter and the operation of the club. This is your club.

When the Ford Motor company cars were introduced for 1952, I liked what I saw very much, especially the 1952 Lincoln. I rarely saw one but two stand out, a Lakewood green convertible and then when on a trip to Iowa, I spotted a Fanfare Maroon & black Capri hardtop.

It was these magnificent cars that stood out over all others and from then on became about my favorite car and even now all these years later, still are. I now own two 1952 Capri hardtops, the first one described in the Northstar News for April 2007 and the second one, I bought just one year ago.

It was a one owner car from upper New York state bought new in Catskill and spent its life in the town of Cleveland on Lake Oneida. The man that owned it all those years worked for the U.S. Government and was on assignment all over the world most of each year so the car did not get driven that much. When he passed away in 2007, the car was sold at the estate sale and I bought it from a man in Syracuse.

Knowing how rare these vehicles are, I bought it sight unseen and had it shipped by enclosed van from New York to Big Stone City, South Dakota. I was more than a little apprehensive to say the least when it arrived but after rolling it out and seeing it for the first time, breathed a sigh of relief. It was far better than I expected.

Bob Johnson of the Northstar Region of LCOC called me and persuaded me to bring it to the Duluth National Meet last June. The car had barely been driven for the last 18 or so years so I got to work and prepared it for the trip. I replaced the intake manifold gaskets, changed fluid in the cooling system as well as the Hydramatic and many other things as well. New tires had been put on 15 years before I bought it and they were still brand new.

Well, we have suffered through November, December, etc... and now it's April 1. Marion and I both think that April was about three or four months late this year. It is said that as you get older, time tends to pass by more quickly. It appears that this is true only during the summer months, however. As Faithie is quick to point out, you can't have nice weather all the time.

The club has been invited to participate in two tours this month. Francis Kalvoda has asked us to come along with the Willmar car club on Saturday, April 4th, beginning with a breakfast in Paynesville, Mn and continuing most of the day, visiting Roy Bernick's great collection in Waite Park, then on to see Ray and Arlene Schmit's (Northstar members) Edsels, Mercury's and Lincoln's. There will be a couple of other stops with a late lunch. Baring a blizzard or a monsoon, it should be an opportunity to see some very fine automobiles. On Saturday, April 24th, we will once again join the CCCA on their annual spring garage tour. It is a tour that manages to get better each year. See pages 8 and 16 for more information on these two events. We also have a brunch/lunch at Jake O'Connor's Public House out in Excelsior on April 19th. Roger Wothe claims the food and service are exceptional. More on page 16.

This April, we will learn more about the exciting endeavors of Bob Johnson, who singlehandedly, has contributed more to the bustling economy of the Greater Shafer area than anyone in recent history. It is truly on the map with the fine new international airport and all of the associated businesses and the light rail extension from downtown Minneapolis, now a small neighbor to the South. Bob wants all of the Northstar club members to stop by Shafer Lincoln and see some of his new Llama's now on hand to met and greet customers. We understand that Dr. Brad Yoho, club member and veterinarian extraordinaire, has volunteered to teach Bob the fine points of animal husbandry. Bob is in good hands.

Ch. Faithie is looking forward to Easter, and the big parade! In her Easter bonnet, with all the frills upon it, she'll be the grandest lady in the Easter parade.

May 23rd brings the club to Morrie's Ford Lincoln-Mercury out in Minnetonka for a Saturday car show. In prior years, Chuck Whitaker graciously hosted yearly shows at his dealership over in Inver Grove Heights. With his store now closed, Morrie's has offered to begin what we would like to be a long term relationship, and an opportunity to display our classic Lincolns at his fine store.

Also, with Whitaker's closed, I brought our MKX over to neighboring Apple Valley Ford Mercury Lincoln for routine service. I can report that my experience with the service department was very good. They appear to be well staffed, friendly and willing to provide the best service to their customers. In and out in about 20 minutes. Can't beat that.

Till next month, Marion, David and Sweet Faithie, the Samoyed.

Judy Garland. It features music by Irving Berlin, including some of Astaire and Garland's best-known songs, such as "Steppin' Out With My Baby" and "We're a Couple of Swells."

The film won the 1948 Academy Award for Best Scoring of a Musical Picture. It also received the Writers Guild of America Award for Best Written American Musical. It was the most successful picture of Astaire's career and it was the highest-grossing musical of the year.

Don Hewes (Fred Astaire), a Broadway star, is out buying Easter presents for his sweetheart, starting with a hat and some flowers ("Happy Easter"). Then he goes into a toy shop, and buys a cuddly Easter rabbit, after persuading a young boy to part with it and buy a set of drums instead ("Drum Crazy"). He takes the gifts to his dancing partner, Nadine Hale (Ann Miller). She explains that she has had an offer for a show, which would feature her as a solo star. Don tries to change her mind, and it looks as if he has succeeded ("It Only Happens When I Dance With You"), until an old friend behind us now.

Our events on March 14th and 15th made for a great weekend with something for everyone; we had 59 people attend. Saturday morning began with Ken Sampson showing us his detailing secrets. Ken was very helpful and really knows what he is doing. After his show and tell, Ken then fed us a great lunch. We spent Saturday afternoon at JR Custom Chrome in Forest Lake. After seeing all the plating and buffing processes that it takes to make that chrome shine so brilliantly, we now know why redoing your cars chrome is so expensive. On Sunday we had a great lunch at the Victory Grill in Brooklyn Park. Bob Roth had a guest speaker explain the features of the Exergizer, Battery Monitor. We are trying to figure out what kind of Technical support is required before making this a club project. We gave away over ten door prizes, DVD's about Duluth, Region and Lincoln Baseball caps, Lincoln lanyard, North Star License Plates and Meguiar's Quick Detailer.

Warm April weather will bring a visit to Jake O'Conner's Public House in Excelsior, for a Sunday Brunch on April 19th, at 11:30 AM. Please RSVP to Bob Johnson, by Thursday, April 16th, at 651.257.1715 or email arbor-bob41@aol.com.

Our first Lincoln Car show for the season will be the 1st Annual Classic Lincoln Car show at Morris Minnetonka Ford Lincoln Mercury, in Minnetonka on May 23rd, 10:00AM to 3:00PM. We will be displaying our Lincolns facing I394 so there will be plenty of traffic viewing your beautiful Lincoln. Mary and I, visited with John Aretz, General Manager on Tuesday, March 17th and the dealership is really looking forward to this Classic Lincoln Car Show. Please put this event on your calendars now, it will be an event that will have many Lincolns attending. We hope to have close to 50 Lincolns at this event.

Summer is just around the corner, our last brunch till this fall will be Sunday, June 21st, at Woodys, in Plymouth, at 11:30 AM.

While writing about the up coming events, it seems that all the activities are on the west side of the Twin Cities this year. Roger Wothe. She performs a duet, singing a musical number with a member of the band (Norman S. Barker) on trombone, "I Want to Go Back to Michigan." ## Northstar March Events....

It was a busy weekend for the Northstar club over March 14th and 15th. This was the first two event weekend for the club, and from all measure it was successful. Of course, nice weather on both days helped bring the folks out to catch the fun.

Ken Sampson making it look easy to Dick Eilers and Stef Balis.

Saturday the 14th, we visited Ken Sampson at his store in Wyoming, Sampson's Auto Showcase. Ken, also known as the "Magic Man", because he makes detailing cars as easy as 1, 2, 3. And the best part, he is willing to share the secrets of the trade with others. It was a real dog and pony show, as Ken very carefully explained and then demonstrated the best tricks of the trade to bring out the very best in a car that has lost a little of its glitter over the years.

One of his best tricks was the cleaning of chrome, stainless steel or aluminum wheels (must have clear coat paint) by applying Acid based wheel cleaner. When he rinsed off the wheels they looked like brand new, and total time from start to finish was just 10 minutes. Have you tried to clean chrome spoke wheels by hand? Not an easy or fun task. Carpet looking a bit dingy? Ken showed us how to clean and dye your cars carpet in one process and he made it look easy.

Ken demonstrated how he details cars, both exterior and interior, paint, chrome, carpet and leather seats, and when he is done the car looks as good as it rolled out the factory door. Online detailing information can be found on www.carbrite.com and www.3mcarcare.com.

Bob Johnson, Paul Andahl, Brian Carlson and Ron Fenelon visit over lunch at Ken's..

The club is investigating the possibility of putting together a DVD and a written guidebook of all these detailing processes that Ken demonstrated. This would be a great project to have all the tricks in one place. Volunteers to help on this undertaking would be greatly appreciated. We really owe Ken a great big thank you. The techniques that Ken demonstrated really make your car look beautiful, and they also can save you many hours of time and lots of dollars.

and she and Don work out a dance routine that proves much more successful than their earlier performance. The duo also perform "Snookie-Ookums", "The Ragtime Violin", and "When That Midnight Choo-Choo Leaves For Alabam".

At an audition for Ziegfeld Follies, where they perform "Midnight Choo-Choo", they meet Nadine, who is starring in the show. Hannah learns that Nadine is Don's former dancing partner, and demands to know if they were in love. Don hesitates, and Hannah runs out of the rehearsal, where she encounters Johnny. They go out to dinner. Back at the hotel, Don reveals that he has turned down the Ziegfeld show - Hannah and Nadine do not belong in the same show. At dinner with Johnny, after a comical routine by the waiter, Johnny reveals that he has fallen in love with Hannah, but Hannah says that she is in love with Don; she even admits to deliberately making mistakes when they rehearse so that she can be with him longer.

Meanwhile, Nadine's show opens, and Don goes to see it ("Shakin' The Blues Away"). He is

It performed flawlessly on the trip and ran better as I put more miles on it. Many of you saw it on display in Duluth.

Some of the features that stand out on the 1952 Lincoln are as follows:

First Ford built car to use a Over Head Valve V8 engine. Very modern styling as compared to other '52 cars. Ball joint front suspension, first U.S. car to use it. Other significant features of 1952 Lincolns include; Center fill gas cap behind license plate. Recognized by the Milestone Car Society. Very highly rated by all the car magazine testers of the time. Used General Motors Dual Range Hydramatic –the best by far transmission of its day. 1952 Lincolns had a short production year, not being available to the dealers until February. Approximately 5500 Capri hardtops were built and very few exist today. Power steering and brakes were offered in 1953 as well as 45 more horsepower and it's believed that the majority of '52 Lincolns were traded for '53 and newer Lincolns to get these features. The trade-ins were probably discounted enough so the younger drivers of that time could afford them and drove them to junk levels.

I feel privileged to be the care taker of these two very rare cars and will give them the very best of care as long as I own them.

Editors note: Our thanks to Charles Hansen for this story of his very nice, mostly original 1952 Capri. To quote the advertising slogan of the period, "Nothing could be finer."

John's shop does some of the best work in the upper Midwest. There are no easy or cheap ways to do chrome plating, short cuts in the plating and buffing process do not yield quality work. We all went home with a better appreciation of why good work is expensive, but worth it.

We had over thirty some people attend on Saturday, which made for just a great day. Again we want to thank Ken Sampson and John Colton for all their efforts, as our club really appreciated the time and effort they put forth. Sunday, March 15th, saw the club gather at the Victory Grill in Brooklyn Park. First time for us there, we were fortunate to have a private room for our brunch. Not the traditional buffet line, but the food was served "family style" and was good. Everyone's appetite was satisfied, and most of us went home ready for an afternoon nap. It was a good opportunity to visit with many of

Please don't forget our next brunch, on April 19th at Jake O'Connor's Public House. Details on back page. The weather should be good and it's a good chance to spend some time with your friends. Please be sure to RSVP Bob Johnson by April 17th. See you there.

Later that night, Don tries to explain that he was forced to dance with Nadine, but Hannah will not listen. She thinks Don used her to make Nadine jealous and win her back. Don tells her that he'll wait all night for her to forgive him, but just as Hannah opens the door, Don is kicked out of her building by the doorman, who has heard his yelling. Eventually, Don's apologies reach her and she arrives unexpectedly at his house the following morning, as if the argument had never happened. She brings gifts as* well, including an Easter rabbit inside a new top hat. Don is a little confused by this turn of events, but is persuaded by his valet that he should just listen to Hannah and go out. As they walk in the Easter parade, photographers, echoing a scene with Nadine from the beginning of the film, take their pictures and Don proposes to her ("Easter Parade").

Cast

Judy Garland as Hannah Brown; Fred Astaire as Don Hewes. Gene Kelly and Mickey Rooney were originally cast, but he was injured just prior to production and Astaire, who had announced his retirement from film, was coaxed back to replace him. (Astaire would "retire" several more times over the next decade, but he would also go on to make a number of additional classic musicals in between retirements.) Rooney however was replaced by Astaire. Peter Lawford as Jonathan Harrow III; Ann Miller as Nadine Hale. This film marked the major MGM debut of tap-dancer Miller (who had previously been under contract to RKO), replacing Cyd Charisse, who had to bow out of the production; Jules Munshin as François; Clinton Sundberg as Mike the bartender

One musical number, a seductive performance of "Mr. Monotony" by Garland wearing the top half of a tuxedo and nylon tights (a style of dress which would become something of a trademark in later years after she wore the same outfit in 1950's Summer Stock), was cut from the film as it was deemed too risqué for a film supposedly set in 1912. Audiences finally got to see this number in the 1990s when an edited version was included in the 1994 compilation film That's Entertainment! III. The complete number was first seen as part of the extras on the VHS and Laser Disc special edition versions the following year. When Easter Parade was re-released to DVD, several minutes of outtakes, raw footage, and alternate takes of this performance were included in addition to the footage previously released.

Editor's Note: This fine 1948 film is available as a DVD. Pick up a copy and remember how things used to be...

Will Bob Johnson Strike Gold Again?

Special to the Northstar News.

Continental and Mark VII, two of the Llamas coming to live with Bob and Mary Johnson.

In the true spirit of the National Inquirer and the Star, those great supermarket news sources, the Northstar News has, at great expense, employed some of the greatest investigators to endeavor to find out just what the most glorious leader of the Lincoln club is up to next. Bulldog Drummond and Frank Cannon (the PI who loves Mark IV's) have finally reported back to News Central just what moves Bob and Mary Johnson are planning.

Bob Johnson, fresh with the success of the Shafer International Airport and the Shafer Lincoln dealership, is believed to be moving in a new direction. For some time now, Bob has been putting in 40 hour days with the Airport commission and the Lincoln dealership. He reports that he needs to take some time for himself, and look toward a less stressful occupation where he and Mary can enjoy quality time together. After a lot of discussions with another Lincoln club member, Paul Andahl, who has a lot of knowledge about farming and cattle operations, Bob has decided to try his hand at raising a herd of Llama's.

To quote Bob "these appear to be the ideal livestock for me to raise. I just can't imagine anything more beautiful than to look out my window and see these friendly and gentle creatures roaming my acreage. They will provide Mary and I with an endless source of amusement just watching them play. And of course, their beautiful coats may be harvested, just like a cash crop and spun into yarn, which may eventually find its way into various items of apparel of all types."

Llama's will be marching in the Shafer Founders Day parade this coming May.

Mary has been busy researching her various interests of shearing, carding, and spinning the yarn so that she can knit the wonderful clothing items that she wants to make with this fabulous material. Bob and Mary also will be working on a Llama song book since they discovered a group of these wonderful creatures Hum when they are together making a soothing musical sound not unlike muted Kazoo's. Mary is hopeful, that with patience and training, the Llama's will be able to master one of her and Bob's very favorite songs, "I left my heart in San Francisco." Noted musical director, George Traficante, (also a Lincoln club member) was quick to add; "I know that I can help out here, teaching these beautiful and smart creatures music should be a snap, compared to some of the high school students that I have worked with over the years."

Look for Llama powered carts going back and forth between the Shafer airport and the downtown business district.

that hopefully in the near future they will be selling llama franchises. Until, their new store "Llama Land" is finished, see the early arrivals at Bob's Lincoln store in Shafer.

Bob has also been working on a group of 6 matching carts that will be used for transporting folks to the Shafer International Airport from the local hotels in and around Shafer. He already has the drivers lined up. They will be a stylish group with Ribbons in the llama's ears and colorful scarves around their necks to match the ties of the drivers. Not everyone can say rode in such style – what a fantasy trip that will be. And of course, Bob, Mary and the Llama's will be the featured event in the annual Founders Day parade held every May in beautiful downtown Shafer. Bob also anticipates that some of the Llamas will also be used to guard the many sheep that continually graze the perimeter areas adjacent to the Shafer International Airport. Llamas are known to bond easily with sheep and protect them from wolves, coyotes and other predators.

Larry and Frank's Llama Heaven will be delivering a truck load on April 1, 2009. Please call or email Bob for the expected time of delivery in case you want to come and watch the arrival. What a memorable day that could be.
